

The Biodiversity of the Black Country Urban Forest

Click on a leaf to open the link

Foreword by David Bellamy, President of the Wildlife Trust
What is the Black Country Urban Forest?
The Physical Geography and Geology of the Black Country
Semi-Natural Woodlands of the Black Country Urban Forest
The Conservation Value of Plantation Woodland
Managing for Biodiversity
Enhancing Diversity in Secondary Woodland
Plants of the Black Country Urban Forest
Trees and Shrubs
Wildflowers
Ferns and Horsetails
Fungi
Animals of the Black Country Urban Forest
Birds
Mammals
Amphibians
Invertebrates
Invertebrates of an Ancient Woodland; A Case Study of Sots' Hole
Non-Woodland Habitats of the Black Country Urban Forest
Other Habitats

The Wildlife Trust for Birmingham and the Black Country

Millennium Programme